Alcova

Conveniently located at the intersection of Cecil, Church and Market Streets, this sleek resto-bar is the venue of choice for discerning professionals looking to relax over a strong martini. Come early and tuck into critically acclaimed chef Jeffrie Siew's modern Euro fare. Then settle down among plush furnishings or soak up the killer views on the rooftop verandah while chilling out to downtempo tunes from acid jazz to bossa nova. The music will bring the work day to a soothing close.

FIVE Izakaya Bar

Just what makes this the perfect bar for after-hours drinks? $5 cocktails? Of course! $5 pub grub? Definitely! $5 Asahi drafts, sakes and wines? Yes, yes and yes. This local incarnation of Tokyo's 300 Bar drives a good bargain indeed and it's regularly drawing in the hordes of suits and execs looking for a shot of booze after 5pm. If you're no penny pincher, they also have premium drinks on the list such as the sakejito ($12).

Union Square

On the other side of the CBD is this recently refurbished institution that is Union Square. Now open seven days a week, this is one place where you can kick back over a few pints with your mates or salsa the night away with resident bands Fuego Latino and Image like there's no work tomorrow. Did we mention that happy hours last till 9pm daily?
